

Why you should join...

Education -IEHA offers a variety of educational opportunities such as earning certification designations as a Registered or Certified Executive Housekeeper upon completion of requirements. Whether you would like to learn more about a specific subject or improve upon a skill set; our cutting-edge Self Study modules are a great way to continue your education. Exciting webinars and instructional videos are also available at a terrific member discount.

Scholarships -Annual scholarships are awarded to IEHA members so they are able to fulfill career goals through IEHA -sponsored educational opportunities or a college of your choice. We even offer scholarships to immediate IEHA family members in order for them to pursue their career goals.

Executive Housekeeping Today - IEHA's monthly publication, is one of the most comprehensive housekeeping journals in the world. Members receive a printed copy through the mail, as well as a virtual copy delivered right to their email inbox for ease of research and review of the hot industry topics to keep you in the know.

Resources Library -IEHA carries reference material on numerous topics pertaining to the professional housekeeping industry. These materials are available to members at a discounted price.

Technical Question Hotline -Everything from how to determine FTE's for your facility to handling infection control issues, IEHA's Technical Question Hotline researches and answers your questions on a complimentary basis as a part of your membership benefits.

Networking -By participating in local or virtual chapter meetings, IEHA members are able to exchange information, ideas and new knowledge on the latest housekeeping service techniques. Our chapters offer educational opportunities that you want and need and provide reciprocated support unsurpassed in any other professional organization.

Employment Services -IEHA members are all eligible to receive a weekly confidential newsletter that contains job openings submitted to IEHA by companies all around the world. These listings are also available in our "Member's Only" portion of our website. Members may also submit one situation wanted notice per year to be published "free" in Executive Housekeeping Today.

Annual Association Convention & Trade Show - Staying true to IEHA's mission to provide education, new product technology and awareness to improve the professionalism of this industry and shape the leaders of tomorrow, the annual convention should not be missed. Since 2000, we have partnered with ISSA at their ISSA/INTERCLEAN® -North America the One Show. We offer member discounts on room reservations and registration for these events.

Dedicated Member's Only Website - All our members have access to our exclusive "Member's Only" section of our website, which allows you to network with other members across the globe and ask or offer opinions on everything from specific products to job related situations from any of our members through this benefit. Keeping up with housekeeping-related topics is at your finger tips 24-hours a day.

IEHA Members Give Back - All of our IEHA members can donate or receive monetary donations through IEHA programs such as our General Relief Fund and our Education Foundation that were developed to help our members either in times of need or in offering support for career advancement.

So, what should you expect as a member? Upon joining IEHA you immediately become part of an extended network of professionals in the industry who all support and identify with I.E.H.A.'s Mission.
